THE ART OF GOD is a photographic celebration of the truth and character of God, as revealed by the world He has made and the Word He has spoken in the Bible. It is about the relationship between artist, art, and viewer and between form, function, and faith. It is about observation and wonder, revelation and joy, and praise and thanksgiving.

God is most glorified in us when we're most satisfied in him. Or we could say "most moved by him" or "most awestruck by him." We need to find artistic ways to awaken in people affections that will glorify God. This is a God-centered, God-glorifying issue — whether we awaken all of the human heart that should be God's.
