But here's the secret about Christmas. The true meaning of Christmas is not in the past. It's in the present. It's right now. The true meaning of Christmas is a promise that God made to us, a promise God is fulfilling right now. The promise to always be with us. The promise that the people who lived in darkness would see light.

Christmas is a time when Christians remember the First Advent and look forward to the Second Advent. Jesus is coming back. The trumpets will blow. The thunder will sound. The legions will shout. And his people will greet him. No more cradles. No more babies. No more crosses. Jesus Christ is coming. That is the real secret of Christmas.
