Torah is therefore our response to the covenantal actions of the LORD God of Israel. Followers of Yeshua are therefore not "anti-Torah" even if they understand this word in relation to the new and better covenant of God (see Heb. 8:6). There is indeed a Torah of the New Covenant, just as there is Torah of the older one.

Are you "Yeshua Observant?" Torah and the New Covenant

The boundless goodness of God, that is unfathomable to the limited powers of human understanding, וּבֹט, is the prime mover and mark of all His loving actions. (The English word "God" is also derived from His goodness).
